

Client Information on Outsourcing

Dear Account Holders,

This is to inform you on the change related to the custody activity of physical securities by KELER Ltd.

Taking the opportunity granted in section 352/A of Act CXX of 2001 on the Capital Market, KELER Ltd. outsources a part of its general depository activity (safekeeping and certain partial custody tasks) as of 1 January 2010. As of this date, Erste Bank Hungary Nyrt. (ERSTE Bank) performs the outsourced activity based on the mandate by KELER.

The outsourcing does not result in any change in the legal relationship of Account Holder and KELER Ltd. and does not affect the performance of contractual obligations assumed by Keler Ltd. or the existing liability of Keler Ltd. Keler Ltd. continues to handle your requests to deliver securities in and out and other requests on physical securities.

Securities deliveries in and out of the Depository located at 10 Révay utca are performed between 8:00 and 12:00 hours on KELER business days.

ERSTE Bank serves only the securities delivering party previously reported to KELER. Securities can be delivered to ERSTE Bank by presenting the delivery form issued by the delivering party of the securities, in properly closed packages. ERSTE Bank confirms receipt of the securities package by signing the delivery form. KELER credits the securities delivered in to the securities account only after detailed validation by ERSTE Bank.

ERSTE Bank serves only the securities receiving party previously reported to KELER. ERSTE Bank releases securities in properly closed packages and issues a delivery form on the securities released.

As of 1 December 2009, KELER performs securities transport in line with the provisions of individual agreement only.

As of 1 December 2009, out of the forms used to date, the form to report delivery in and request delivery out changes due to the outsourcing. The new forms are attached to this information.

As of 1 December 2009, the delivery in form and the delivery out request form are requested to be faxed to fax number +36 1 352-1042.
