Comments:

In 2018, KELER started KELER Service Development Program (KSDP), a new, comprehensive program. KELER set the goal to create an IT infrastructure that is more modern and of higher quality than the current infrastructure, with domestic developers and suppliers, on new foundations, thus further strengthening its position among European central securities depositories. KSDP consists of several project phases and will build functionalities and service elements gradually. The first phase of the Program focused on the renewal of the securities settlement system. As part of this, in addition to maintaining KELER's previous basic account management systems, a new settlement platform was introduced on 6th December 2021, an automated interface was built between KELER and T2S, and services and mechanisms were created that are required primarily by the provisions of the CSDR and the related EU regulation (SDR) governing settlement discipline. Parallel with the new settlement platform, the basics of new master data management and fee calculation systems of KELER were also established, based on which the statements and reports prepared for our Clients were entirely renewed.

3. RISK MANAGEMENT, AUDIT, ASSET PROTECTION & CYBER RESILIENCE (CSDR 48.1, CSDR RTS 84.1)

CSD link arrangement review

Standard questionnaire in line with the EU CSD Regulation 909/2014

3.1. Risk Management
Do you have an Enterprise Risk Management framework implemented in your CSD?
(x) Yes () No
Please briefly describe the your CSD's approach to risk management.
Comments: Article 47 of the CSDR requires that the central securities depository must cover enterprise (business) risks with capital. Risks are assessed and identified within the context of a strategy, by preparing business plans based on multiple potential scenarios. Controlling department is responsible for monitoring and reporting business risks. This means the regular back-testing of business plans in the strategy and reporting the results to the Management. In addition, the Management also receives regular information about changes in costs and revenues. KELER's Management is responsible for managing enterprise risks.

3.2. Asset protection
How does your CSD ensure protection of assets held across the link? (question relevant for both, EEA and EU third-country CSDs, CSDR RTS 84.1 (e)) and 84.1 last paragraph
Please enclose the legal assessment (i) of the entitlement on securities held across the link, including the law applicable to proprietary aspects, the nature of rights and the possibility of encumbering the assets, as well as (ii) of the impact of insolvency proceedings opened against your CSD on our CSD regarding the segregation requirements, settlement finality, procedures and time-limits to claim securities in your jurisdiction.
[File Attachments]
Comments: In the case of liquidation procedure (or bankruptcy) initiated against KELER, the participant's securities and cash being in custody shall not be included in the liquidation assets thereof. The general rules relating to insolvency law to be applied are set out in Act XLIX of 1991 on Bankruptcy Proceedings and Liquidation Proceedings, while special provisions different from these are set out in Section 345 of Act CXX of 2001 on the Capital Market (collateral safeguarding the transaction). The protection related to the segregation of securities accounts can be inferred from these rules. During the liquidation of KELER, securities registered in securities accounts of Account Holders and their clients maintained by KELER are excluded from assets to be liquidated. During potential liquidation proceedings, the monetary claim which replaces the securities claim of the Account Holder and its client is to be managed identically to the original securities claim. During potential liquidation proceedings, the security deposit specified in Section 338 of the Act CXX of 2001 on the Capital Market is excluded from the assets of KELER to be liquidated. If the assets which constitute property of Account Holders and their clients cannot be returned to them, or can only be returned in part, then – deviating from the priorities set out in Section 57 of the Act XLIX of 1991 on Bankruptcy Proceedings and Liquidation Proceedings – after settling liquidation costs first, these claims must be settled from the assets of KELER. If secondary securities were issued, then during liquidation proceedings the primary security shall be handled as a security deposited by the owners of the secondary security, which belongs to the participants and is also excluded from the assets to be liquidated.

CSD link arrangement review

Standard questionnaire in line with the EU CSD Regulation 909/2014

The Supervising Authority shall order a complete ban on payouts from the submission date of the application for liquidation, if the assets to be liquidated are lawful and the Supervising Authority deems that suitable management of the interests of creditors, Account Holders and their clients is not ensured.

Segregation, therefore, has practically no effect in terms of insolvency law, thus protection remains the same when securities accounts are segregated.

See the quoted regulation attached.

3.3. Insolvency (CSDR RTS 26 b, 36 d)

Please briefly explain the framework that would govern (the very improbable) insolvency of your CSD.

[File Attachments] or link to a web page

Comments:

According to the Act CXX of 2001 on Capital Market the collateral and deposit (assets in custody) determined in the Act are not part of the liquidation asset of the institution. The securities deposited by the participants at the central depository and the securities registered in the participants' securities accounts or securities deposit accounts are also not part of the liquidation asset of the institution.
For further information see point 3.2.

3.4. Cyber resilience (CSDR RTS 70.9, 75.5, 78.1)

Are cyber resilience measures undertaken by your CSD?

Yes

No

Please briefly describe your CSD's approach to cyber resilience. What is the level of maturity of these measures?

<https://intranet/SitePages/Kezd%C5%91lap.aspx>

Comments:

KELER has established a comprehensive cyber resilience framework. Based on formally accepted cyber resilience strategic and regular risk assessments, the necessary technical, operational and human resource related measurements has been implemented to ensure the protection and continuity of KELER operation day-by-day. Based on independent audit results, a mature level has been achieved. A yearly certification is performed based on NIST SP 800-53 Rev4 standard.

- is successfully received within the cut-off times,
- is submitted in the manner and with the content determined in the SLA (i.e. the order is not rejected for reasons of logic, format or content), and
- the related verification of cover was successful.

Following the time when the System suspended the admission of instructions that is following the time of notification of an insolvency proceeding KELER shall consider as admitted the following instructions:

- with regard to transfer instructions settled outside the T2S system (that is, in KELER) and not in T2S currency KELER shall consider as admitted on the given day instructions for the given value date, whether submitted electronically or as a document, if the instruction
 - was submitted in the way and with the content defined in the GBR, is correct in terms of form and content, and as such it was admitted by KELER (that is, it was not rejected due to reasons of logic, form, or content)
 - is a successfully matched and secured transfer instruction
 - if a notification of insolvency proceeding against the Participant is received, KELER shall consider unmatched and unsecured transactions as not admitted, and shall delete them from the settlement process.

If it can be concluded based on the reconciliation that the creation or cancellation of securities was unjustified, and KELER does not sort out the issue until the end of the following settlement day, KELER suspends the settlement of the securities series concerned until the unjustified securities creation or cancellation is remedied, and it requests the trading venue concerned to suspend it also.
